REGULATIONS

Art. 1 - The competition is reserved for amateur ensembles* only. This condition must be attested by the declaration of the choir’s conductor in the application form. This restriction does not apply to conductors or eventual instrumentalists whose participation is required by the programme.

* “amateur singers” are defined as those who do not carry out professional activity on a permanent basis and who participate free of charge.

Art. 2 - Once admitted, failure to participate in a section will result in disqualification in the other sections as well.

Art. 3 - The choice of the repertoires, both in terms of difficulty of execution and artistic value, may influence the evaluation.

Art. 4 - The eventual participation of instrumentalists, if requested by the performance, will have to be assessed by the Jury.

Art. 5 – Should the number of choirs admitted to any of the section or at the sections as set out in this announcement, be insufficient, the Foundation Guido d’Arezzo reserves the right to suppress that particular category or section. The choirs will still be allowed to participate in other categories or sections to which they had been admitted.

Art. 6 - The members of children’s choirs will have to present to the competition provided with their I.D., containing a photograph, issued by a competent authority. This document will have to be shown to the designated officer before entering the stage.

Art. 7 - The stay of the choirs in Arezzo and their participation in the competitions will be organized as follows:

Category A “ Competition”

a) choral ensembles based within 100 km from the event venue, will be provided with meals and accommodations. The Foundation reserves the right to accommodate the groups within a range of 40 km from the city of Arezzo. Eventual different kind of accommodations than what provided by the Organization are to be paid by choirs;

N.B. Choral ensembles based within 100 km from the event venue, may be provided with board, only in case of requirements related to the competition.

b) meals and hosting will be offered, in addition to the singers, to a maximum of 3 more people: 1 conductor, 1 tour leader and 1 driver (only in case the choir is travelling by its private bus).

c) meals and accommodations will be provided starting from the dinner of the day before the choir's first performance until the morning following the choir's last performance in competition;

d) all travel expenses are to be paid by the choirs;

e) for organizational reasons, during the days of the Competition the choirs will not be allowed to participate in other festivals, nor to leave Arezzo, unless they have been previously authorized.

Category B “ Festival”

a) meals and accommodation fees will be paid by the choirs. The Foundation will assist with organizational matters, should the choir request it.

b) all travel expenses must be paid by the choirs admitted to the competition

c) during the competition period the choral groups cannot take part in other activities; nor leave Arezzo without having received previous authorization.

Art. 8 - The composition of the choir or of the ensemble may vary according to the different pieces to be performed, provided that the limits of the single sections are respected.

Art. 9 - Any eventual replacement of the choristers compared to the lists delivered, must be promptly communicated to the Secretariat of the Foundation, in order to assess its regularity.

Art. 10 - The eventual request of replacement of one or more pieces in the contest may be submitted to the Secretariat of the Foundation within the 30th of June 2023; the Artistic Direction of the competition reserves the right to accept or refuse the eventual request.

Art. 11 – The order of exhibition of the choirs will be decided by irrevocable and definitive judgement expressed by the Artistic Direction. During the competitions the pieces must be performed according to the order resulting from the program. Any eventual exception must be previously agreed with the Jury Secretariat.

Art. 12 - All the competitions will be subject to the judgement of an International Jury.

Art. 13 - During the Competition, further choral music concerts (programmes to be defined) will be organized. The choirs admitted to the Competition will have to participate in the concerts. The concerts will be scheduled according to the competition schedule and requirements.

Art. 14 - All the events of the competition will be open to the public and visible in streaming on the website of the Foundation, www.polifonico.org. In addition, the Foundation reserves the right to take photographs, images and video recordings for publication on social and video sharing platforms, i.e. YouTube (see Attachment 1- Information on personal data processing choir's members and Attachment 1B Information on personal data processing – Minors).
